

KWAZULU-NATAL TOP BUSINESS PORTFOLIO AWARDS 2010

KwaZulu-Natal TOP BUSINESS PORTFOLIO

Manufacturing winner and finalists

THE finalists in the manufacturing category – which is broadly defined as the transformation of materials into new products – are Sappi, Foskor and PFK Electronics.

Sappi
Sappi is one of the major economic contributors in KwaZulu-Natal, where the company operates a number of its business units. Part of the giant Sappi group, the pulp and paper producer has a very strong presence in KZN with huge tracts of forestry and three mills.

Foskor
Foskor is one of the leading, vertically integrated producers of phosphate fertilisers in South Africa. This attractive market position is convincing proof that the company's long-term commitment to sustainable and equitable economic development will be successful. Foskor's resolution is to offer superior customer service and exceptional service delivery.

WINNER: PFK Electronics

PFK Electronics is a major designer and manufacturer of electronic systems based in Durban. Currently, 70% of its products are distributed to customers in 25 countries worldwide via a network of dedicated and exclusive distributors. PFK Electronics employs over 400 people encompassing staff working on the production lines right through to design engineers, support technicians, accountants, marketers and production managers.

Social and Community Services winner

The social and community services sector award went to UKZN Graduate School of Business, which was collected by Professor Anesh Maniraj Singh
