

FNB
First National Bank

KWAZULU-NATAL TOP BUSINESS PORTFOLIO AWARDS 2010

KwaZulu-Natal TOP BUSINESS PORTFOLIO

Trade finalist and winner

Charkes Henzi, Tony Kruger, Anne Marie Henzi, Daisy White and David White

Judy and Tiny van Niekerk with Mike Newton

Logie Naidoo, MEC Mikcael Mabuyakhulu, Elizabeth Maepa and Elizabeth Mushongo

THE finalists in the trade sector – which includes wholesale, commission trade and retail trade – are Spar and McCarthy.

Spar

Spar is an international, leading global brand and is the world's largest food retailer. Spar in South Africa has expanded fast and channelled significant funds into operations and proprieties as well as into expanding, renovating and improving its store network and appearance while taking into consideration social needs of the communities it serves.

WINNER: McCarthy

The year 2010 sees McCarthy celebrating 100 years of doing business based on open and honest business principles. The company represents more than 30 respected brands and consists of 220 business units spanning motor-related industries from retailing, distribution, import, vehicle rental, insurance, finance, e-marketing, auctioneering and more.

To all the other finalists in the
KWAZULU-NATAL TOP BUSINESS AWARDS...

Congratulations

We know what you went through to get there.

KwaZulu-Natal Top Business Portfolio 12 Edition
www.kzntopbusiness.co.za
www.vulabbee.co.za