Top Gear fans will be delighted to hear the news that Richard Hammond has just been confirmed to join his co-presenters at this year's Top Gear Festival, Durban powered by Shell V-Power. Confirmation of his attendance at the event makes Durban one of only four cities in the world that will see all three presenters perform live together this year

CAR LAUNCHES AT TOP GEAR FESTIVAL

- Jaguar – Another SA exclusive, be the first to see the new F-Type unveiled at Top Gear Festival Durban. This exquisite car will also be put through its paces on the all new TGF Street Circuit.
- Mercedes have joined forces with Top Gear Festival again this year and will be displaying their sensational AMG range in the Expo area. Mercedes will also be launching the new A-Class.
- Ford – See Ford's all new Focus ST.
- Audi - the latest manufacturer to confirm their participation at TGF this June. Audi will use TGF as a platform to launch the RS5 Cabriolet – never before seen in South Africa. Audi will also be showcasing the RS range.
